3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 26.02.2024 from

Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Gurugram has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“1-With respect to the genuineness, authenticity and veracity of the compromise, it is submitted that parties were questioned orally whether they are voluntarily settling the matter to which they replied in the affirmative. Further. from the demeanor of the parties also they did not appear to be under any coercion or undue influence. Therefore, prima-facie it appears that the compromise arrived at between the parties is valid, genuine, voluntarily and without any coercion or undue influence and all affected parties have entered into the compromise.

2- As per report of Investigating officer and as per final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. there are two accused persons in the present FIR namely Tushar Verma and Raj Kumar Verma and one complainant namely Vaishali. Both the accused persons have been charge-sheeted.

3- As per report of Investigating officer and as per final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. there is only one complainant in this FIR by the name of Vaishali D/o. Tilak Raj and she is the respondent in the petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

4-. As per the report of Investigating officer, none of the accused persons have been declared as proclaimed offender.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*
- (iii) The parties have compromised.*
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.*
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.*

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.107 dated 20.09.2021 under Sections 323, 34, 406, 498-A, 506, 509 of IPC, registered at Police Station, Women West Gurugram, District Gurugram and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise/settlement dated 14.12.2023 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
