After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present petition was filed in the year 1997 and approximately 27 years have passed as of now and certain facts have come into operation after the filing of the present petition hence, the petitioner intends to file appropriate representation for the grant of benefit which is being sought in the present petition for the consideration of the respondent-State and prays that the respondent-State be directed to decide the said representation in the light of the pronouncements by this Court as well as by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India by passing an appropriate speaking order in a time bound manner.

Learned counsel for the respondent-State submits that in case,

CWP-15624-1997 (O&M) -2-

any representation is received from the petitioner, the same will be decided in the light of the pronouncements by this Court as well as by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and an appropriate order will be passed within a period of 08 weeks from the date of receipt of such representation and in case, it is found feasible to grant the relief to the petitioner, the same will be extended to him otherwise, due reasons for the not accepting the claim of the petitioner will be mentioned in the speaking order so passed, which will be conveyed to the petitioner for his information and necessary action.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the statement made by learned counsel for the respondent-State, present petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further.

Ordered accordingly.

Civil miscellaneous application pending, if any, is also disposed of.
