Versus
STATE OF PUNJAB AND ANOTHERRespondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARKESH MANUJA

Present: Mr. Rajesh Kumar Kashyap, Advocate for the petitioners.
Mr. Siddharth Sandhu, AAG, Punjab.
Mr. Sandeep Gahlawat, Advocate for respondent No.2.

HARKESH MANUJA, J. (ORAL)

By way of this petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. the petitioners pray for quashing of case bearing FIR No.206 dated 04.10.2023 registered under Sections 420 and 120-B of IPC at P.S. City Gurdaspur, District Gurdaspur along with all consequential proceedings arising out of the same on the basis of compromise.

2. As per allegations levelled in the FIR, the petitioners committed fraud with complainant-respondent No.2, pertaining to land in question.

3. This Court while issuing notice of motion vide order dated 15.03.2024 directed the parties to appear before trial Court for getting their statements recorded as regards the veracity of the compromise arrived at between them.

4. In pursuance to the order dated 15.03.2024, a report dated 01.04.2024 has been received from the concerned Court, stating that the compromise in the present case is genuine and voluntary.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that once, a compromise has been arrived at between the parties without any pressure and respondent No.2 has no objection as regards quashing of FIR as well as all other subsequent proceedings arising out of the same against the petitioners; the dispute purely personal in nature, there does not appear to be any impediment as regards quashing of present FIR. He also submits that even, in order to maintain peace and harmony between the parties, particularly under the circumstances wherein the alleged offences have no societal interest involved, it would be appropriate to render complete quietus to the aforementioned dispute by quashing the FIR on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties.

6. On the other hand, learned State counsel submits that allegations in the present FIR are of serious nature and he opposes the prayer made in the petition.

7. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and gone through the records including the report dated 01.04.2024. The parties having settled their dispute so as to live in peace in future, no useful purpose would be served by proceeding further with the criminal proceedings. In the light of above developments, no cause remains for the trial Court to invest further time and effort in adjudicating this FIR. The compromise in question is even found to be fully in consonance with the directions issued by this Court in Kulwinder Singh & Ors. Vs. State of Punjab 2007(3) RCR(Criminal) 1052 and Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr., 2012(4) RCR (Crl.) 543".

8. Moreover, learned counsel for the petitioners on instructions from his clients, submits that they volunteer to serve public cause by providing 5 Para Cardiac Monitors to Civil Hospital, Gurdaspur.
9. Thus, in view of the aforesaid report, accompanied by statements of both the parties as well as keeping in mind the law laid down in the aforementioned judgments, the petition is allowed and FIR No.206 dated 04.10.2023 registered under Sections 420 and 120-B of IPC at P.S. City Gurdaspur, District Gurdaspur along with all consequential proceeding arising therefrom, are hereby quashed.
10. Accordingly, petition stands, allowed, however subject to providing 5 Para Cardiac Monitors to Civil Hospital, Gurdaspur.within a period of two weeks from today as volunteered by the petitioners against due receipt issued by the concerned Civil Surgeon, who shall prepare an inventory in this regard for its regular inspection by the Director concerned.
