CRR-355-2024

Date of decision: 19.02.2024

Surjeet Singh

...Petitioner

Versus

Mohinder Pal

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KARAMJIT SINGH

Present: None.

KARAMJIT SINGH, J. (ORAL)

1. The present petition has been filed by the petitioner seeking quashing of order dated 20.12.2023 passed by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Ferozepur (Duty) in Criminal Appeal No. CRA-389-2023 titled as Surjit Singh Vs. Mohinderpal whereby the substantive sentence of the petitioner was suspended subject to condition that he shall deposit 20% of the total amount of compensation awarded by the learned trial Court within 60 days as per provision contained in Section 148 of Negotiable Instruments Act.

2. The brief facts of the case are that respondent/complainant filed criminal complaint under Section 138 NI Act against the petitioner wherein on completion of trial the petitioner was convicted and sentenced to imprisonment and to pay a fine under Section 138 NI Act. Being aggrieved the petitioner filed an appeal against the said judgment and order passed by the trial Court and he also sought suspension of sentence during the pendency of the appeal. The appellate Court entertained the appeal and passed impugned order.

3. Being not satisfied, the petitioner has filed the present revision petition.

4. This Court has perused the case file.

5. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari Vs. M.P. State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. And others 2023 (10) SCC 446 has observed that deposit of minimum 20% compensation/fine amount was not an absolute blanket rule under Section 148 of Negotiable Instruments Act while considering the request of the accused for suspension of sentence. The Hon'ble Supreme Court further observed that it was duty of the appellate Court to give reasons for imposing the condition to deposit 20% of compensation for suspending the sentence.

6. From the perusal of the impugned order it appears that the same has been passed by the appellate Court in a mechanical manner without assigning any reasons directing the petitioner to deposit 20% of the compensation amount awarded by the trial Court within 60 days. Thus, the said order is not passed by the appellate Court as per the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari's case (supra).

7. For the forgoing reasons, the present petition is allowed and direction to deposit 20% of compensation amount is set aside. The appellate Court is directed to reconsider the application filed by the petitioner seeking suspension of sentence, after giving opportunity of hearing to petitioner and respondent, in the light of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari's case (supra). Till fresh orders are passed by the appellate Court as directed above, no coercive steps shall be taken against the petitioner. The petitioner is directed to appear before the appellate Court on the date already fixed in the appeal.

8. The petition stands disposed of in aforesaid terms, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case.

9. Keeping in view the nature of order being passed, no notice is required to be issued to the respondent. However, if he feel dis-satisfied with this order, he may move an application to recall the same.
