

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

114

CWP-3536-2024
Date of Decision :16.02.2024

Ashish Mor

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. G.S. Gopera, Advocate for the petitioner.

Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that without deciding the objections, which the petitioner raised to the certain questions, which were put to the candidates in the written examination, the result has been declared by the respondents, which is totally arbitrary and illegal as the respondents were under an obligation to decide the objections qua the answer key first and then declare the result.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that no decision on the objections submitted by the petitioner has been taken, which clearly shows that objections filed by the petitioner to the answer key is still pending consideration with the respondents.
3. Notice of motion.
4. Mr. Harish Nain, AAG, Haryana accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State and submits that result has been declared after dealing with all the objections which were raised to the answer key keeping in view the recommendations of the expert committee and the assertion that the result has been declared by the recruiting agency without finalising the objections is totally incorrect.

5. Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner intends to approach the respondent-Commission for the redressal of his grievance so as to know the outcome of his objections by filing an appropriate representation and prays that the respondents may kindly be directed to decide the same by passing an appropriate speaking order in a time bound manner.

6. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that in case any representation is received from the petitioner, the same will be decided in accordance with law within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of such representation.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the statement made by learned counsel for the respondents, present petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further with liberty as prayed for.

8. Ordered accordingly.
