CWP-18650-1997
DECIDED ON: 04.03.2024

CHARAN SINGH VERSUS
POLC II FARIDABAD AND ANR

.....PETITIONER
.....RESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY VASHISTH.

Present: Mr. Anil Shukla, Advocate for the petitioner.

SANJAY VASHISTH, J (ORAL)

1. Present writ petition has been filed by the workman, challenging the award dated 27.01.1997, passed by learned Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court – II, Faridabad, whereby reference No.164 of 1995 under Section 10 (1) (c) of the Industrial Disputes Act, has been answered against him.
2. Though, learned Court gave its observation that as per some of the entries, petitioner – workman is found to be working as a Clerk in the office of Municipal Committee, Palwal, but the reference cannot be answered merely on the basis of the said fact.
3. Moreover, in the letter written by the Secretary for Executive Officer, Municipal Committee, Palwal (appended with the writ petition as Annexure P-4), a fact has been recorded that petitioner – workman worked from May, 1994 to October, 1994, but only a photocopy of the said letter has been produced on record and has not been proved, in accordance with law.

4. Present writ petition pertains to the year 1997 and with the efflux of time, it is highly doubtful that whether any cause still survives with the petitioner. Moreover, nothing substantial in favour of the petitioner has been brought on record to prove his employment with the Municipal Committee, Palwal.
5. This Court does not find any substantial reason to interfere with the findings recorded by learned Presiding Officer, Labour Court – II, Faridabad, in award dated 27.01.1997.
6. In view of the aforementioned observations, present writ petition stands dismissed.
