Instruments Act, 1881, stood withdrawn by the complainant. In support, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has drawn the attention of this Court to the statement dated 18.5.2018, suffered before the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Faridabd. He submits that in these circumstances, continuation of the FIR (Annexure P-4), and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, would not serve any useful purpose, and thus, the same be quashed.

3. This Court has heard learned counsel for the parties concerned, and has perused the relevant material on record.

4. In the light of submissions made by learned counsel representing the petitioner, together with the fact that since the original complaint already stands withdrawn, this Court deems it fit and appropriate to quash the criminal proceedings in the instant case. Accordingly, the petition is allowed and the FIR (Annexure P-4), along with all subsequent proceedings arising out of it, are, hereby, quashed.
