

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(228)

CRM-M-10064-2023

Date of Decision:-24.05.2024

Navpreet Kaur

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of U.T. Chandigarh and another

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ALOK JAIN

Present: Dr. Malkit Singh Jandiala, Advocate for the petitioner.

ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of order dated 18.01.2023 (Annexure P-6) passed by learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Chandigarh in FIR No. 327 dated 21.07.2012 under Sections 384 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 66-A of the I.T. Act, registered at Police Station 39, Chandigarh.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the trial has been completed and hence, the present petition has been rendered infructuous.
3. In view of the above, the present petition is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.

(ALOK JAIN)
JUDGE

24.05.2024

Parul

Whether speaking/reasoned:-	Yes/No
Whether Reportable:-	Yes/No