Date of Decision: 13.03.2024

KEWAL AND ANOTHER

... Petitioners

VERSUS

SATBIR SINGH

....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE RITU TAGORE

Present: Mr. Aditya Vermani, Advocate for the appellant in FAO-192-1994 and for respondent in CR-477-1994.

None for petitioners in CR-477-1994 and for the respondents in FAO-192-1994.

RITU TAGORE, J.(Oral)

1. These are burnt cases.
2. The FAO has been preferred by Satbir Singh against Kewal and Yudhvair Singh (as evident from the judgment passed in MACT Case No.125 of 1993 decided on 20.10.1993 titled 'Satbir Singh Vs. Kewal and another').
3. Counsel for the appellant (in FAO-192-1994) stated that as per his knowledge respondents No.1 and 2 have passed away and despite his best efforts he could not trace out their LR's.

4. In view of the submissions made by learned counsel for the appellant, at this stage, there appears no reasonable possibility of tracing out the LR's of the respondents against whom compensation is sought. Learned counsel for the appellant also submitted at bar that the appeal and petition be consigned to the records with liberty to the appellant to revive the same as and when LR's of deceased respondents are traced.
5. In view of the above it is not desirable to linger on the present appeal and revision at this stage, and the same are disposed of with liberty to the appellant and revisionist to revive the same as and when anyone is aggrieved of by this order.
6. A photocopy of this order be placed on the connected case file numbered above.
