In the present petition, the challenge is to the selection of the private respondents. It may be noticed that the writ petition was filed in the year 1999 and the private respondents must have retired as of now. Even otherwise, no one has appeared on behalf of the petitioner to press the present petition. It can be safely presumed that petitioner is not interested in pursuing the present petition.

Dismissed for non-prosecution.

Pending miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
