DEEPAK GUPTA, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the appellants submits that despite all possible efforts he has not been able to contact his client or to obtain any fresh instructions.

The suit was for permanent injunction. The issue involved pertains to recovery of house tax for the period of two years. It is doubtful that even the cause of action still survives.

Having regard to the statement made by counsel for the appellants to the effect that no further instructions are being received from the appellants, this appeal stands disposed of with liberty to the appellants to approach this Court in case, any cause of action survives.
