MANISHA BATRA, J. (ORAL

Learned State counsel states that challan already stands presented in this case. The instant petition had been filed at the time when the investigation was going on, for seeking directions to respondent No.4 and 5 not to harrass the petitioners by unnecessarily calling them in their office at the instance of respondent No. 6 and 7.

Since, the investigation proceedings already stand culminated, therefore, the present petition has been automatically rendered infructuous and is dismissed as such.
