- 2. Whether there is any other accused other than the petitioners, arrayed in this petition;*
- 3. Whether there is any other complainant or affected/aggrieved party other than the respondents, arrayed in the petition.*
- 4. Whether any accused has been declared as proclaimed offender.*

In compliance of these directions, the parties on both side to the petition appeared before the undersigned for getting their statements recorded regarding compromise. The petitioners No.1 & 2 appeared inperson whereas the petitioner No.3 & 4 as well as respondent No.2 appeared through video conference. The parties were identified by their respective counsels. Parties on both side to the petition have suffered statements with regard to the compromise and the same have recorded separately (enclosed herewith).

In compliance of the directions, the statement of the Investigating Officer was also recorded. (Copy enclosed herewith)

From the perusal of the statements recorded of parties on both sides to the petition, the Investigating Officer and of judicial file, the information sought by the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court vide order dated 04.03.2024 is as under:-

- 1. All the affected parties have entered into a compromise and the same seems to be a valid compromise without there being any kind of influence or coercion.*
- 2. There is no other accused other than the petitioners arrayed in the petition.*

- 3. There is no other complainant or affected/aggrieved party other than the respondent No.2 arrayed in the petition.*
- 4. All the accused stands declared proclaimed persons (the* operation of said orders have been stayed till the next date of hearing in petition bearing No. CRM-M-11346-2024 vide order dt. 04.03.2024 by the Hon'ble P & H High Court). ”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-3).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.

(v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.56 dated 04.05.2011 under Sections 406 and 498-A of IPC, registered at Police Station, Model Town, District Ludhiana and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 23.02.2024 (Annexure P-3), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
