CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY VASHISTH.

SANJAY VASHISTH, J (ORAL)

1. Petitioner i.e. The Taran Taran Cooperative Sugar Mills Ltd. has filed present writ petition for quashing of the award dated 11.09.1997 (Annexure P-6) passed by Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Amritsar, whereby reference No.80 of 1991 has been answered in favour of respondent No.2 – Shri Balkar Singh (workman).
2. Learned Labour Court has held that the workman is entitled to reinstatement with continuity in service along with 50% back wages from the date of demand notice i.e. 17.01.1991 and as per the award, the period of its implementation was for 30 days from the date of publication of the award.
3. While admitting the present writ petition on 15.04.1998, Division Bench of this Court had declined stay. Even, application (CM-17241-1999) filed during the pendency of the present writ petition for staying the payment of back wages to the workman (respondent No.2), was also dismissed, vide order dated 25.05.2000.

4. Present writ petition is pending since the year 1998 and counsel for the petitioner is also doubtful that whether in the absence of stay on operation of the award, and with the efflux of time, any substantial issue for its adjudication still survives or not.

5. In view of the factual aspects recorded here above, present writ petition is dismissed for want of prosecution.

6. However, liberty is granted to the petitioner to move an appropriate application for seeking revival of the present writ petition, within eight weeks from today, in case, any substantive issue still exists along with a cause of action to the petitioner.

7. Registry is directed to forward copy of the today's order at the address of the petitioner mentioned in the writ petition.
