

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

106

RSA-724-1994 (O&M)

Date of Order:03.04.2024

Jit Singh

.Appellant

Versus

Narinder Singh

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: None

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J

1. It has been noticed that on 10.04.2023, the following order was passed:-

“Learned counsel for appellant submits that appellant has expired and he seeks time to implead his legal heirs.

Adjourned to 25.05.2023.

In the meantime, let setps be taken to implead legal heirs of respondent, who has also expired during the pendency of instant appeal.”

2. After a passage of nearly one year, the learned counsel representing the appellant has not taken any steps. This is an old appeal which is pending for the last 30 years which arises from the suit for permanent injunction. It appears that the parties are no longer interested in prosecuting the appeal.

3. Dismissed for non-prosecution.

4. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.

April 03, 2024
nt

(ANIL KSHETARPAL)
JUDGE

Whether speaking/reasoned

:YES/NO

Whether reportable

:YES/NO