

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

242

CRM-M-12743-2022 (O&M)

Date of order: 09.02.2024

Karanbeer Singh & Others

.....Petitioner(s)

Vs.

State of Haryana & Another

.....Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present:- Mr. Aditya Sanghi, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Aditya Pal Singla, AAG Haryana.

Mr. Lokesh Sharma, Advocate for respondent No.2.

Nidhi Gupta, J.

The prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR No.135 dated 20.04.2021 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 323, 34, 354, 406, 498-A and 506 IPC registered at Police Station Rania, District Sirsa, Haryana; and all consequent proceedings arising there to against the petitioners/accused including final report presented under Section 173 Cr.P.C. (Annexure P2), on the basis of compromise dated 19.03.2022 (Annexure P3) effected between the parties.

Vide order dated 19.09.2022 Co-ordinate Bench of this Court had directed the parties to appear before Illaqa Magistrate for getting their statements recorded in terms of certain parameters given in the aforesaid order dated 19.09.2022 with regard to the compromise dated 19.03.2022 (Annexure P-3).

In terms of the order dated 19.09.2022 passed by Co-ordinate Bench of this Court parties have appeared before the Court of learned Additional District and Sessions Judge (I), Sirsa and as per his report dated 04.11.2022 submitted to this Court, both the parties have got recorded their respective statements in Court.

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioners and respondent No.2 have appeared and suffered statements with respect to the compromise, which have been found to be voluntary, genuine, and out of free will.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has further submitted that the petitioners were not declared proclaimed offenders in the present case and all the accused are a party to the compromise.

Learned State Counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise qua the petitioners.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 has again reiterated that the matter has been settled and the said compromise is in the interest of all the persons and would help in bringing out peace and amity between the two parties.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the Illaqa Magistrate, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and the complainant. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the proceedings where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, this petition is allowed and FIR No.135 dated 20.04.2021 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 323, 34, 354, 406, 498-A and 506 IPC registered at Police Station Rania, District Sirsa, Haryana; and all consequent proceedings arising there to against the petitioners/accused including final report presented under Section 173 Cr.P.C. (Annexure P2), on the basis of compromise dated 19.03.2022 (Annexure P3) effected between the parties, are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioners.

Petition stands disposed of.

Pending application(s) if any also stand(s) disposed of.
