HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that the certain benefits have been given to the similarly situated employees for being adjusted on the post of Counselor, which benefit has not been extended to the petitioner in arbitrary and illegal manner hence, the respondents are under an obligation to grant the petitioner the benefit of adjustment against the post of Counselor w.e.f the date the similarly situated employees has been extended the said benefit.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the grievance raised in the present petition has already been raised by the petitioner in the representation dated 16.04.2022 (Annexure P-4) which is still pending consideration with the respondents and the petitioner will be satisfied at this stage in case a time bound direction is issued to the respondents to decide the said representation by passing an appropriate speaking order.

3. Notice of motion.

4. Mr. Harish Nain, learned Assistant Advocate General, Haryana, who is present in the Court, accepts notice on behalf of the respondents.

5. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that in case the representation dated 16.04.2022 (Annexure P-4) has been received in the office of concerned authorities and is still pending consideration, the same will be decided by the authorities concerned within a period of eight weeks of the receipt of copy of this order and in case, after the decision of the representation, any benefit accrues to the petitioner, the same will also be released to him otherwise due reasons for not accepting the claim of the petitioner will be mentioned in the speaking order for his information and necessary action.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the statement of learned counsel for the respondents, the present writ petition may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further.

7. Ordered accordingly.
