Present: Mr. Ranjinder Singh Sidhu, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Siddharth Sandhu, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Kulbir Singh Sekhon, Advocate for respondents No.2 and 3.

HARKESH MANUJA, J. (Oral)

1. By way of present petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the petitioner prays for quashing of FIR No.511, dated 24.12.2023, registered under Sections 279, 337, 427 IPC, at Police Station Sohana, District SAS Nagar, Mohali (Annexure P-1) and all other subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 21.02.2024/11.03.2024 (Annexure P-2).

2. As per the allegation levelled in the FIR, an accident took place due to the rash and negligent driving of the petitioner, in which, vehicles of respondents No.2 and 3 got damaged, besides it, respondent No.3 sustained injuries.

3. In pursuance of order dated 14.03.2024 passed by this Court, whereby parties were directed to appear before the Trial Court for getting their statements recorded as regards the veracity of compromise arrived at between them, report dated 15.04.2024 has been received from the concerned Court, stating that compromise is genuine, voluntary and out of free will of the parties. No accused has been declared as proclaimed person.

4. Once, the compromise has been arrived at between the parties without any pressure and respondents No.2 and 3 having no objection as regards quashing of FIR as well as all other subsequent proceedings arising out of the same against the petitioner; there does not appear to be any impediment as regards quashing of present FIR qua the petitioner. Even otherwise, the parties have entered into a settlement besides it in order to maintain peace and harmony between the parties, particularly under the circumstances wherein the alleged offences have no societal interest involved, it would be appropriate to render complete quietus to the aforementioned dispute by quashing the FIR on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties.

5. The parties having settled their dispute so as to live in peace in future, no useful purpose would be served by proceeding further with the criminal proceedings. In the light of above developments, no cause remains for the Trial Court to invest further time and effort in adjudicating this FIR. The compromise in question is even found to be fully in consonance with the direction issued by the Court in Kulwinder Singh & Ors. Vs. State of Punjab 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr., 2012(4) RCR (Crl.) 543.

6. Moreover, learned counsel for the petitioner on instructions from his client, submit that he volunteers to serve public cause by providing one

(01) RO Filter to Civil Hospital, SAS Nagar Mohali.

7. Thus, in view of the aforesaid facts, accompanied by statements of both the parties as well as keeping in mind the law laid down in the aforementioned judgments, FIR No.1 511, dated 24.12.2023, registered under Sections 279, 337, 427 IPC, at Police Station Sohana, District SAS Nagar, Mohali (Annexure P-1) as well as all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed qua the petitioner.

8. Accordingly, petition stands allowed, however, subject to providing one (01) RO Filter to the Civil Hospital, SAS Nagar Mohali, within a period of two weeks from today as volunteered by the petitioner against due receipt issued by the concerned Civil Surgeon, who shall prepare an inventory in this regard for its regular inspection by the Director concerned.
