Mr. Siddharth Sandhu, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Chetan Bansal, Advocate for the petitioners (in CRM-M-13562-2024) and for respondents No.2 to 4 (in CRM-M-13393-2024)

HARKESH MANUJA, J. (Oral)

1. This common judgment of mine shall dispose of two petitions bearing CRM-M-13393-2024 and CRM-M-13562-2024.

2. CRM-M-13393 of 2024 has been filed for quashing of General
Diary No.33 dated 11.07.2017, under Sections 326, 323, 324 and 34 IPC, registered at Police Station Beas, District Amritsar Rural along with all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 23.02.2024 (Annexure P-2).

3. CRM-M-13562 of 2024 has been filed for quashing of FIR No.134 dated 24.06.2017, registered under Sections 323, 324, 148, 149 IPC, at Police Station Beas, District Amritsar Rural (Annexure P-1) along with all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise deed dated 23.02.2024 (Annexure P-2).

4. Present is a version and cross-version case, in which, both the parties inflicted injuries to each other.

5. In pursuance of separate orders dated 18.03.2024 passed by this Court, whereby parties were directed to appear before the Trial Court for getting their statements recorded as regards the veracity of compromise arrived at between them, separate reports dated 25.04.2024 have been received from the concerned Court, stating that the compromise effected between the parties is genuine, voluntary and has been effected without any threat, fear or coercion from any corner. No accused has been declared as proclaimed person.

6. Once, the compromise has been arrived at between the parties without any pressure and respondent(s) having no objection as regards quashing of aforementioned FIR as well as General diary/Rapat along with all other subsequent proceedings arising out of the same against the petitioner(s); there does not appear to be any impediment as regards quashing of present FIR as well as General diary/rapat qua the petitioner(s).

Even otherwise, in order to maintain peace and harmony between the parties, particularly under the circumstances wherein the alleged offences have no societal interest involved, it would be appropriate to render complete quietus to the aforementioned dispute by quashing the FIR as well as General Diary/Rapat on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties.

7. The parties, who are real brothers, having settled their dispute so as to live in peace in future, no useful purpose would be served by proceeding further with the criminal proceedings. In the light of above developments, no cause remains for the Trial Court to invest further time and effort in adjudicating the aforementioned FIRs. The compromise in question is even found to be fully in consonance with the direction issued by the Court in Kulwinder Singh & Ors. Vs. State of Punjab 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr., 2012(4) RCR (Crl.) 543.

8. Moreover, learned counsel for the petitioner(s) on instructions from their clients, submit that petitioner(s) (including petitioners in CRM-M-13562-2024) volunteer to serve public cause by providing one Operation Table to Civil Hospital, Amritsar.

9. Thus, in view of the aforesaid facts, accompanied by statement of both the parties as well as keeping in mind the law laid down in the aforementioned judgments, the abovementioned two petitions are allowed, General Diary No.33 dated 11.07.2017, under Sections 326, 323, 324 and 34 IPC, registered at Police Station Beas, District Amritsar Rural and FIR No.134 dated 24.06.2017, registered under Sections 323, 324, 148, 149 IPC, at Police Station Beas, District Amritsar Rural as well as all subsequent and another connected cases

proceedings arising therefrom, are hereby quashed qua the petitioner(s) in both the petitions.

10. However, aforesaid order shall be subject to providing one Operation Table to Civil Hospital, Amritsar, within a period of three weeks from today as volunteered by the petitioners (including petitioners in CRM-M-13562-2024) against due receipt issued by the concerned Civil Surgeon, who shall prepare an inventory in this regard for its regular inspection by the Director concerned. A copy of the receipt shall also be sent to the office of Advocate General, Punjab at the earliest for maintaining records in this regard.
