

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

234

CRM-M-15959-2024

Date of Decision: 09.05.2024

Surjit Ram and another

.... Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and another

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present: - Mr. Ajay Kumar Choudhary, Advocate for the petitioners.

Ms. Aakansha Gupta, A.A.G., Punjab.

Mr. Arihant Goyal, Advocate for respondent No.2.

NIDHI GUPTA, J. (ORAL)

The petitioners have filed the present petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., for quashing of FIR No. 0004 dated 10.01.2021 registered under Sections 354, 500, 34 IPC, 1860 at Police Station Khanauri, District Sangrur (Annexure P-1) alongwith all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of Panchayati compromise dated 13.01.2024 (Annexure P-4) and affidavit of the complainant/respondent No.2 dated 04.03.2024 (Annexure P-5).

Pursuant to the order dated 04.04.2024 passed by this Court, the parties appeared before the learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Moonak, Sangrur (Punjab), to get their statements recorded. Learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Moonak, Sangrur (Punjab) has submitted her report along with statements of the parties vide letter dated 24.04.2024 duly forwarded by the learned District and Sessions Judge, Sangrur on 25.04.2024.

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioners and respondent No. 2 suffered statements with respect to the compromise, which have been found to be valid, genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence. The petitioners are not involved in any other case.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that as per report, petitioners are the only party to the compromise and have never been declared as proclaimed offenders.

Learned State counsel has stated that he has ‘no objection’ in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise qua the petitioners.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Moonak, Sangrur, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and respondents No. 2. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the proceedings where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced here-in-below:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed here-in-above, this petition is allowed and FIR No. 0004 dated 10.01.2021 registered under Sections 354, 500, 34 IPC, 1860 at Police Station Khanauri, District Sangrur (Annexure P-1) alongwith all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of Panchayati compromise dated 13.01.2024 (Annexure P-4) and affidavit of the complainant/respondent No.2 dated 04.03.2024 (Annexure P-5), are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioners.
