DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

1. Learned counsel for the contesting parties have arrived at an agreement on the basis whereof the instant appeal is being disposed of.

2. Learned counsel for respondent No.1 submits that respondent No.1 shall file, with advance notice to the appellant, along with an application for interim custody, a petition before the competent Family Court seeking therein custody of her minor child, who according to her is in the illegal custody of the appellant.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that as and when the appellant is put to advance notice of the filing of the aforesaid petition, the appellant undertakes to appear on the first date of the petition's listing before the competent Family Court.

4. Within two weeks from the date of the first listing of respondent No.1's aforesaid petition, the competent Family Court is directed to consider and decide at least respondent No.1's prayer for interim custody, in accordance with law. Thereafter, respondent No.1's petition shall be finally adjudicated upon within four months.

5. The afore decisions to be taken by the competent Family Court shall be uninfluenced by the findings recorded in the order impugned before us.
6. The appeal is disposed of in the above terms.
7. All pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
