1. On 23.03.2023, the following order was passed:-

“Notice of motion for 5.5.2023.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the revision petitioner is ready to make the payment of decretal amount with interest and cost, however, he requires some time for doing that.

Under the circumstances, let a sum of Rs.6 lakhs be deposited by the revision petitioner in the executing court within three weeks from today and furnish an undertaking to deposit remaining dues with interest and cost within one month. Thereafter operation of the impugned order dated 4.10.2022 passed by Civil Judge, Junior Division, Jalandhar and further execution proceedings shall remain stayed. On deposit of Rs.6 lakhs by the revision petitioner the same be released to the decree holders, as per rules. However, in case of default this order shall be taken to be vacated.”

2. The learned counsel representing the respondents (decree holders) submits that the entire payment has been made and the execution petition has been withdrawn.

3. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the revision petition has been rendered infructuous is disposed of as such.
4. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
