****

NAMIT KUMAR ,J. (ORAL)

1. The instant petition has been filed by the petitioner under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing the order dated 12.04.2021 (Annexure P-3), whereby the services of the petitioner have been abruptly terminated before the expiry of the contractual period without giving any opportunity of hearing on the basis of alleged letter No. 610 dated 21.09.2020 by totally ignoring the appointment letter dated 26.06.2020 (Annexure P-1).

2. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 submits that the contract period of the petitioner is already over on 30.06.2021 and has continued in service till the said date on account of interim order dated 23.04.2021 and, the instant petition has been rendered infructuous.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner does not dispute the abovesaid factual position. However, he submits that the petitioner has not been paid salary from March, 2021 to June, 2021.

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 submits that the payment of the said period has already been disbursed to respondent No.6, the service provider.

5. In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of. However, the petitioner shall be at liberty to claim wages from March 2021 to June, 2021 from respondent No.6.
