CRA-S-1201-2024

The learned counsel for the appellants contends that as the appellants have been summoned in a private complaint, no case for custodial interrogation is made out.

Notice of motion for 24.04.2024.

In the meantime, in case, the appellants surrender before the Trial Court within a period of 10 days from today, they shall be admitted to interim bail subject to furnishing their bail bonds/surety bonds to its satisfaction.”

On 24.04.2024, the following order was passed:-

“ The Counsel for the petitioner shall place on record the order whereby the appellant was granted the concession of anticipatory bail pursuant to the order dated 21.03.2024 passed by this Court.

Adjourned to 10.05.2024.”

Thereafter, the matter was adjourned to 10.05.2024 and has now come up for hearing.

Learned counsel for the appellants contends that in deference to the aforementioned orders, the appellants have surrendered before the Trial Court and have since been granted the concession of bail interim vide order dated 27.03.2024 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge-I, Kapurthala. The copy of the said order is taken on record as Mark ‘A’.

In view of the fact that the appellants have surrendered and have since been granted the concession of interim bail, no further orders are
