Harsimran Singh Sethi, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the appellant-State submits that as the appellant has already died and there was no interim order passed by this Court, the judgment and decree under challenge in the present appeal must have been executed and any relief granted to the appellant after his death cannot be withdrawn hence, by keeping the question of law open, present appeal may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further.

Ordered accordingly.

Civil miscellaneous application pending, if any is also disposed of.
