Present regular second appeal has been filed challenging the judgment and decree of the lower Appellate Court dated 20.05.1996 by which, order of suspension dated 13.09.1991 has been set aside.

It may be noticed that present appeal is pending consideration for the last 28 years and as there is no interim order passed by this Court and respondent-plaintiff must have retired since long coupled with the fact that by the time, suspension order dated 13.09.1991 was set aside, respondent-plaintiff has even otherwise been reinstated in service in the year 1992 hence, the present appeal, due to efflux of time has been rendered infructuous and the same is accordingly disposed of.
