Learned counsel for the petitioner at the outset submits that the parties have amicably settled all their disputes.

On the last date of hearing, learned counsel for the complainant/respondent No.2 had submitted that although the matter had been compromised however one of the cheques, which had been given by the petitioner in terms of the compromise had been dishonoured. Learned counsel for the complainant/respondent No.2 has submitted that now the entire amount stands paid back to the complainant and hence, there exists no grievance between the parties.

In the circumstances, the present petition is disposed of in the wake of compromise so effected.
