

CRM-M-20230-2024

Petitioner was not having any knowledge about initiation of the proceedings under Section 82 Cr.PC against him and thereafter he was declared proclaimed offender. So, the order declaring the petitioner proclaimed offender is per se wrong and illegal.

Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that petitioner now wants to visit India on 18.07.2024. He further submits that respondent No.1 has since died and he has been sued through his only legal heir – Smt. Baldish Kaur. “

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in compliance of order dated 11.07.2024, petitioner has appeared before the Trial Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also produced the copy of order dated 23.07.2024 passed by the trial Court, which is taken on record. A prayer, therefore, has been made to make the order dated 11.07.2024 absolute.
4. Learned State counsel, on instructions, has not disputed the submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner.
5. In view of the above, present petition is allowed and interim order dated 11.07.2024 is made absolute subject to the conditions as envisaged in Section 438(2) Cr.PC.
