DEEPAK GUPTA, J.(ORAL)

On 04.04.2024, following order was passed:

“The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C with a prayer to grant anticipatory bail to him in case FIR No.155 dated 27.06.2023 under Sections 148,149,323,325,326,341,506,395 of IPC (Sections 325,326 and 395 of IPC added later on) registered at Police Station Radaur, District Yamuna Nagar, Haryana.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that in fact, the complainant has concealed the real facts and the genesis of the occurrence. In reality, Pardeep Kumar, Sandeep Kumar and Gulab Singh had caused serious injuries to co-accused namely Robin, when the petitioner and his co-accused were going to the house of Robin from the house of Rahul. He further placed reliance on the MLR (Annexure P-2) of co-accused Robin to contend that the the accused of the petitioner was seriously injured by the complainant side and the FIR has been got registered by the complainant side by coining a false version. Learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on the order (Annexure P-3) passed by this Court, whereby the similarly placed co-accused Rohin has already been granted the concession of bail by this Court.

Notice of motion for 02.05.2024.

In the meantime, the petitioner is directed to join the investigation. In the event of arrest, he shall be released on interim bail to the satisfaction of Arresting/Investigating Officer subject to the conditions provided under Section 438(2) of the Cr. PC.”

Today learned State counsel, on instructions from ASI Jasbir Singh submits that petitioner has since joined the investigation and is not required for custodial interrogation.

Having regard to the aforesaid facts and circumstances, but without commenting anything further on the merits of the case order dated 04.04.2024 is hereby made absolute, whereby petitioner was granted interim anticipatory bail.

However, the petitioner shall continue to join the investigation as and when called upon to do so by the Investigating Agency and shall abide by the conditions of Section 438 (2) Cr.P.C.
