Date of decision : 16.09.2024

Savita Rani Appellant

versus

Chander and another Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PANKAJ JAIN

Present: None for the appellant.

Mr. Kanwar Abhay Singh, Advocate for the respondent.

PANKAJ JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. Present appeal has arisen out of a suit filed by plaintiff-wife who sought declaration to the effect that her marriage with defendant No.1 Chander be declared as null and void. The suit was initially decreed. However, Lower Appellate Court though concurred with the findings that the marriage was indeed void affirming finding on issue No.1 reversed finding on issues No. 2 to 4 holding that the suit was not maintainable and the plaintiff was required to seek annulment of marriage by invoking provisions of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 by filing petition thereunder.

2. The appeal is pending before this Court for the last 24 years. Counsel representing the respondent submits that as per his information, plaintiff-appellant has re-married and respondent No.1 is living happily with his grand children.

3. In view of above, this Court finds that since the parties have reconciled to their position, there is no further need to go into the merits to adjudicate the present appeal.
4. Dismissed for non-prosecution.
5. Since the main case has been decided, pending miscellaneous application, if any, shall also stands disposed off.
