2. On the last date of hearing, i.e. 23.04.2024, this Court had granted the concession of interim bail to the petitioner and asked him to join investigation on the basis following submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner on 08.04.2024.

“Learned counsel inter alia contends that not even a single penny was either handed over in cash to the petitioner nor deposited in his bank account by the complainant, who has levelled false allegations in the FIR in question that the petitioner had lured him into parting with a sum of ₹13.00 lacs on an undertaking that he would provide him a job with the Food Corporation of India.”

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in compliance of the order dated 23.04.2024, the petitioner has joined investigation and cooperated with the investigating agency.

4. Learned State counsel, on instructions, does not dispute the factum of the petitioner having joined investigation and cooperated with the investigating agency. She, on further instructions submits that the petitioner is not required for further investigation much less for his custodial interrogation.

5. In the circumstances, the petition is allowed and the interim order dated 23.04.2024 is made absolute subject to the conditions laid down in Section 438(2) Cr.P.C. Needless to say, in case the petitioner misuses the concession of bail granted to him, the State would be at liberty to seek cancellation of the bail granted to him.
