SANJEEV PRAKASH SHARMA.J. (ORAL)

A perusal of the case file would reveal that giving the nature of disputed question of facts and the dispute between the parties, the matter can not be examined in a writ petition as the scope of writ petition is too limited and would not go into factual aspect.

- 2. In view thereof, the remedy available as per the common law, is granting liberty to the petitioner to approach before the appropriate authority.
- 3. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed.
- 4. After passing of the order, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be permitted to withdraw the present petition.
- 5. In view of above, the present petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
- 6. All pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
