Present: Ms. Svetlana, Advocate for
Mr. Sandeep Verma, Advocate
for the petitioner in CRM-M-18629-2024.

Mr. Ravi Malhotra, Advocate
for the petitioner in CRM-M-13358-2024.

Mr. Pawan Kumar, DAG, Punjab.

PANKAJ JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. Present petitions have been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C.
for grant of regular bail to the petitioners in case bearing FIR No.0031 dated 23.02.2023, registered for the offences punishable under Sections
20, 25 and 29 of NDPS Act, 1985 at Police Station Focal Point, District
Ludhiana.

2. As per the case of prosecution, on 23.02.2023 at about 06.40 p.m., a secrete information was received regarding the petitioners alongwith Munish Kumar @ Sunny and Rahul indulging in selling ganja. Petitioners were apprehended alongwith co-accused and they were found to be in possession of 22 kg of ganja.

3. Custody certificate has been produced. The same is taken on record. As per the same, petitioners by now has undergone actual custody of more than 1 year, 04 months and 18 days and have no other case.

4. Counsel for the petitioner submits that challan already stands presented despite the fact that the charges were framed almost a year back on 18.07.2023. None of the 13 cited witnesses could be examined that too when majority of the witnesses are official. Further reliance is being placed upon Rabi Prakash Vs. The State of Odisha passed in Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No(s). 4169 of 2023 decided on 13.07.2023 wherein it has been held as under :-

“4. As regard to the twin conditions contained in Section 37 of the NDPS Act, learned counsel for the respondent – State has been duly heard. Thus, the 1st condition stands complied with. So far as the 2nd condition re: formation of opinion as to whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that the petitioner is not guilty, the same may not be formed at this stage when he has already spent more than three and a half years in custody. The prolonged incarceration, generally militates against the most precious fundamental right guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution and in such a situation, the conditional liberty must override the statutory embargo created under Section 37(1)(b)(ii) of the NDPS Act.”

5. Earlier to Rabi Prakash's case supra also Apex Court has consistently held that the prolonged incarceration has to be considered de hors bar contained under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. The Supreme Court in order dated 22.08.2022 passed by the Supreme Court in Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.5530-2022 titled as "Mohammad Salman Hanif Shaikh Vs. The State of Gujarat", had held as under:-

"We are inclined to release the petitioner on bail only on the ground that he has spent about two years in custody and conclusion of trial will take some time.

Consequently, without expressing any views on the merits of the case and taking into consideration the custody period of the petitioner, this special leave petition is accepted and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing the bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Special Judge/ concerned Trial Court.

The special leave petition is, accordingly, disposed of in the above terms.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of."

6. Supreme Court in order dated 07.02.2020 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Criminal Appeal No.245/2020 titled as "Chitta Biswas Alias Subhas Vs. The State of West Bengal" was pleased to grant concession of bail to the petitioner (therein) in a case where the custody was of 1 year and 7 months approximately. The relevant portion of the said order dated 07.02.2020 is as under: -

"Leave granted.

This appeal arises out of the final Order dated 30.7.2010 passed by the High Court of Calcutta in CRM No.6787 of 2019.

The instant matter arises out of application preferred by the appellant under Section 439 Cr.P.C. seeking bail in connection with Criminal Case No.146 of 2018 registered with Taherpur Police Station for offence punishable under Section 21-C of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act,

Without expressing any opinion on the merits or demerits of the rival submissions and considering the facts and circumstances on record, in our view, case for bail is made out. We therefore, allow this appeal and direct as under:

2024:PHHC:087770

We have heard Mr. Ashok Kumar Panda, learned Senior Advocate in support of the appeal and Mr. Sanjay Jain, learned Additional Solicitor General for the respondent.
