"In compliance of the Order dated 21.02.2024 passed by Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court in the above titled petition, parties to petition appeared in the court of undersigned for recording their statements with regard to the compromise. Moreover, statement of police official concerned ASI Jasvir Singh No.1358/HPR, PS Mahilpur is also recorded. Following report is submitted :-

(i) As per record and as per statement of concerned police official, present FIR was registered on the complaint of Mahikpreet against her husband Balbir Singh, father in-law Sohan Lal, mother-in-law Nirmal Kaur, brother-in-law Jaswinder Singh, sisters-in-law Sunita and Meena. After completion of investigation, police challan was presented only against accused Sohan Lal. Accused Nirmal Kaur, Jaswinder Singh, Sunita and Meena were found to be innocent during investigation. Accused Balbir Singh could not be arrested at that time and proceedings against him remained pending but he was not declared as proclaimed person or proclaimed offender. Accused Sohan Lal was acquitted vide judgment dated 20.02.2023 and there is no appeal against the same by prosecution. So, presently there is only accused Balbir Singh who is petitioner before Hon'ble High Court.

(ii) As per record, there is only one victim who is complainant Mahikpreet.

(iii) As per record and as per statement of police official, accused has not been declared as proclaimed person or proclaimed offender in present case.

(iv) The matter has been compromised between all the effected parties voluntarily and out of their free will and consent and without any coercion or undue influence. The compromise appears to be genuine.”

4. Complainant-respondent No.2 had appeared in person as (identified by ASI Jasbir Singh on 21.02.2024) whereinafter an order was passed for recording of statement of the parties. Complainant-respondent No.2 has made a statement before the concerned Court that the matter stands duly compromised.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.*
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.*
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.*
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i)

Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii)

The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii)

The parties have compromised.
- (iv)

As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v)

Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition 9.

Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.49 dated 01.05.2019 under Section 498-A of IPC, registered at Police Station, Mahilpur, District Hoshiarpur and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise/settlement/statements dated 02.12.2022 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.
10.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
