KULDEEP TIWARI, J. (Oral)

1. Today, no one has caused appearance on behalf of the petitioner.
Since the last three occasions, no one has caused appearance on behalf of the petitioner.
2. This Court vide order dated 28.10.2024, passed the following order:-

“The learned State counsel submits that the petitioner has not surrendered till date. He has placed on record affidavit of custody issued by Navdeep Sigh Behniwal, Superintendent, District Prison, Sri Muktsar Sahib in this regard.

No one has caused appearance on behalf of the petitioner. The position was the same since the last two dates of hearing. Therefore, this Court deems fit and appropriate to issue arrest warrants against the petitioner.

The SHO concerned, shall ensure the execution of the arrest warrants and in case the arrest warrants is not executed, he shall cause his personal appearance before this Court on the next date of hearing.

Adjourned to 11.12.2024.”

3. Today in pursurance of direction issued by this Court, SHO concerned has caused his personal appearance, and submits that the whereabouts of the present petitioner is not known, despite making all earnest efforts to execute the warrant of arrest.

4. The instant petition is directed against the judgment dated 24.01.2023, passed by the learned trial Court concerned, and the judgment passed by the learned Appellate Court concerned. In the instant case, it is confirmed to this Court that the petitioner was released on 8 weeks' parole by the jail authority vide order dated 08.07.2023, and thereafter, he has not surrendered back.

5. Considering the conduct of the petitioner, that he is an absconder, and even his non-bailable warrants issued by this Court is not executable, and from the last three dates, no one has cause appearance on his behalf. This Court also also examined the order impugned in the instant petition, this Court could not find any perversity or illegality requiring any interference by exercising its revisional power, therefore the present petition is dismissed.
