GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in respect of the aforementioned FIR.
2. The allegations, in nutshell, are that the petitioner had misappropriated the sale consideration in respect of plot belonging to complainant, which the petitioner had sold off in the capacity of attorney of seller/complainant.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the FIR came to be lodged under some misunderstanding, which has now been resolved and the matter has been fully compromised between the parties and infact a petition for quashing of FIR on the basis of compromise has already been instituted in this Court.

4. While learned State counsel opposed the petition, Ms. Aarushi Garg, Advocate, learned counsel representing the complainant has endorsed the factum of compromise and has stated that she has no objection in case the present petition is accepted.
5. Having regard to the fact that the matter stands amicably resolved amongst the parties, the instant petition is accepted and it is ordered that the petitioner, in the event of his arrest, be released on bail subject to his furnishing personal bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of Arresting/Investigating Officer. However, the petitioner shall join the investigation as and when called upon to do so and cooperate with the Investigating Officer and shall also abide by the conditions as provided under Section 438 (2) Cr.P.C.
