The sole appellant was reported to have died.

However, keeping in view the fact that some of her legal representatives were already on record as proforma respondents 3 and 4, notices were issued to them to appear in person or through a duly authorized representative, for today.

They have been duly served through their family members but they have chosen not to put in appearance.

Counsel for the appellant also pleads no instructions.

In view of the above, file be consigned to record.
Liberty is, however, granted to get it revived, in case of need, by moving an appropriate application.

A copy of this order be supplied to learned counsel for the parties as also to the legal representatives of the deceased appellant.
