MEENAKSHI I. MEHTA, J.(ORAL)

As reported by the Registry, the appellant has been served through his daughter-in-law and the notices issued to respondents No.1 to 3 have been received back with the report that they have died.

2. It is pertinent to point it out here that on 02.12.2023, none had appeared in the Court on behalf of the parties and therefore, notices were ordered to be issued to their respective counsel. Then, as mentioned in the order dated 14.12.2023, the Registry had reported that the intimation had been sent to the respective counsel for the parties through whatsapp, email and letter as well but the parties had again remained unrepresented on that day and hence, notices were ordered to be issued to the parties for today.

3. However, none has put in appearance in the Court today also to represent the appellant nor any one has moved the application till date, for being impleaded as the legal representative of the respondents.

4. In these circumstances, this Court is left with no other option but to dismiss the present appeal for want of prosecution.
5. Resultantly, the appeal in hand stands dismissed accordingly.
