

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CR No.2431 of 2024
Date of Decision: 23.04.2024

Santosh
.....Revisionist-Petitioner.

Versus

Lalit Mohan Gulati and another
.....Respondents.

CORAM: HON’BLE MRS. JUSTICE MEENAKSHI I. MEHTA

Present:- Mr. Nipun Verma, Advocate for the revisionist-petitioner.

MEENAKSHI I. MEHTA, J. (Oral)

By filing the instant revision-petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has sought the indulgence of this Court for the issuance of the direction to learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Chandigarh (for short ‘the Executing Court’) to decide the Execution Application No.2861 of 2023 titled as ‘Santosh Vs. Lalit Mohan Gulati and another’ in a time-bound manner, while averring that she is 85 years old and has been suffering from multiple serious ailments and has, even, been hospitalised several times for her treatment for the same.

2. However, at the time of assisting the Court, at the preliminary stage, in the present revision-petition, learned counsel for the petitioner has restricted his prayer to the issuance of direction to the Executing Court to decide the afore-said Execution Application at the earliest possible.

3. Keeping in view the above-discussed limited prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the facts that the petitioner happens to be a senior citizen and is suffering from multiple serious health problems and without commenting or expressing any opinion on the merits of the afore-referred Execution Application, the revision-petition in hand is, hereby, disposed of with a direction to the concerned Executing Court to decide the Execution Application under reference, in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible.
