CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD S. BHARDWAJ

Present :- Mr. Vaibhav Narang, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Manish Dadwal, AAG Haryana.

Mr. Brijender Kaushik, Advocate for respondents No.4 and 5.

VINOD S. BHARDWAJ, J. (Oral)

Challenge in the present petition is to the order dated 13.12.2022 passed by respondent No.2-the State Registrar of Societies, Haryana.

It is noticed by this Court that on 24.04.2024, it was informed by learned counsel appearing on behalf of petitioners that the parties have already resolved their dispute and that he shall place on record the minutes of the meeting.

On resumed hearing, he has handed over a copy of the minutes of Annual General Body Meeting dated 27.08.2023, which is taken on record as 'Mark-A'.

From the perusal of the minutes of the meeting it is clear that the members have amicably resolved the dispute, the relevant extract of the same read thus:-

“Further, many due deliberations and discussions were done with the intervention of eminent members and senior citizens of the society along with the executive committee and petitioners of cases relating to the Election held in October-2022 and the CCTV Camera case; it was unanimously agreed by the petitioners to withdraw all cases against PRWA. It was also decided that all the stakeholders and members of the society should join hands and work together in the interest of the society. All the petitioners for the Camera case and the Election disputes, including the Executive Committee members, agreed. After this, all disputes regarding elections and CCTV cameras were settled and closed.”

Learned counsel for the respondents No.4 and 5, however, denies the knowledge about the decision taken/resolution passed in the said meeting.

Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the matter has been resolved amongst the parties as is evident from the minutes of the meeting and he does not wish to press the present petition.

Be that as it may, taking into consideration the minutes of the meeting placed on record it is evident that the dispute has been amicably settled.

The present petition is thus disposed of as not pressed at this stage in view of the aforesaid information given by the learned counsel for the petitioners.
