SMT. KANTA GUPTA

Present : None.

As per the note of the Registry, appellant No.1-cross objector (respondent No.1 in FAO-1649-1997, already decided) has expired.

On call, none has appeared including the LR's on behalf of appellant No.1cross-objector.

Appellant No.2/cross-objector (respondent No.2 in FAO-1649-1997) has been served through brother. However, on call, there is no representation on his behalf.

Appellant No.3/cross objector (respondent No.3 in FAO-1649-1997) has been served but on call, there is no representation on his behalf also.

It seems that the cross-objectors are not interested in pursuing present cross-objections and in view thereof, there is no need to keep this cross-objections on board for indefinite period.

Dismissed in default.

However, liberty is granded to the cross-objectors to file an appropriate application to revive the same, if aggrieved by this order.
