

IN THE PUNJAB AND HARYANA HIGH COURT AT CHANDIGARH

accepts notice and filed Vakalatnama in Court today, which is taken on record.

5. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 does not dispute the submissions made by counsel opposite and submits that he has no objection in case, anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioners.

4. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the relevant material on record.

5. Admittedly, the FIR in question emanates from a sudden quarrel between the parties; later on, they resolved their dispute by an amicable settlement. Moreover, the investigation in the case in hand is at the initial stage.

6. In the facts and circumstances as enumerated hereinabove, this Court deems it fit to extend the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioners. In the event of their arrest, they shall be admitted to interim bail on their furnishing bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Arresting/Investigating Officer. The petitioners shall abide by the terms and conditions as envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.PC.

7. Accordingly, the present petition stands allowed.
