Present:- Mr. H.K. Brinda, Advocate for Mr. Dharam Pal, Advocate for the appellant.

Mr. Abhishek Sharma, Advocate for Mr. Vishal Gupta, Advocate for the respondent.

A suit was filed by the plaintiff-respondent that 1 Kanal 2 Marla of land, the description of which was given in the plaint, was in his possession and entries made by the Revenue Authorities in the khasra girdawari in favour of appellant-defendant had no effect upon his right. He also sought relief of permanent injunction with a prayer that appellant-defendant be restrained from forcibly dispossessing him from the said land. The said suit was dismissed; however, the respondent-plaintiff became successful before the appellate Court. A permanent injunction was granted restraining the appellant-defendant to eject the respondent-plaintiff forcibly from the land. When this appeal came up for hearing before this Court on 26.07.2004, it was admitted and both the parties were directed to remain status quo, regarding the possession of the land in dispute.

We have made best efforts to serve the respondent; however, he could not be served. Service report states that both the parties are not residing in the village.

Faced with the situation, the counsel for both the parties state that this appeal be disposed of with liberty to the respondent-plaintiff to seek redress qua change of Khasra Girdawari before the competent revenue officer. Till the time any order is passed by the revenue authority, the parties shall maintain status quo with regard to possession.

In such circumstances, the appeal stands disposed of.
