304 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-21580-2023
Date of decision: 16th January, 2024

Rupinder Kaur and others

...Petitioner(s)

Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANISHA BATRA

Present: Mr. Gurjinder Singh, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Parneet Singh Pandher, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Amandeep Sharma, Advocate for respondents No.2 to 7.

MANISHA BATRA, J (ORAL):-

The present petition has been filed under Section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure for quashing of FIR No. 332 dated 31.01.2019 registered under Sections 323, 324, 452, 354-C, 427, 148 and 149 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Lopoke, Amritsar Rural, District Amritsar (Annexure P-1) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 10.04.2023 (Annexure P-3).

2. The aforementioned FIR had been lodged by respondent No.2/complainant and investigation was commenced thereon.

3. It is jointly submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners as well as respondents No.2 to 7 that petitioner No.4 Ajaypal had in fact declared innocent and had not been arrested and challaned.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that it only due to inadvertant that he has been impleaded as a petitioner in this petition and his named may be deleted from the array of the parties.

5. In view of the submission so made, the name of the petitioner No.4 Ajaypal is ordered to be deleted from the array of charges. Copy of challan report showing that he had not been arrested declared innocent has also been placed on record.

6. It is submitted by counsel for the petitioner(s) that a compromise has been arrived at between the parties and they have resolved their inter se dispute, which was reduced into writing as compromise dated 10.04.2023 annexed with the present petition as Annexure P-3.

7. On the basis of said compromise, the petitioners have prayed for quashing of the aforesaid FIR and all the subsequent proceedings on the ground that continuation of such proceedings would be a futile exercise.

8. This Court vide order dated 29.04.2023 had directed the parties to appear before the trial Court/Duty Magistrate for recording their statements with regard to the genuineness of the compromise stated to have been arrived at between them. The trial Court/Duty Magistrate was also directed to send his/her report along with the said statements.

9. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, The Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ajnala has sent report vide endorsement No. 321 dated 14.09.2023 to this Court along with photocopies of the statements of respondent No.2-

Kashmir Singh and petitioners recorded on 03.07.2023 and statement of Investigating Officer ASI-Baldev Singh as recorded on 05.08.2023.

10. On the basis of these statements, it is submitted by learned Magistrate that the compromise effected between the parties is genuine, out of free Will and without any pressure or coercion. It is also mentioned in the report that apart from the petitioner(s), there is no other accused in the FIR and that the accused have not been declared proclaimed persons in this case.

11. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and besides perusing the report by learned Judicial Magistrate, have also perused the record.

12. It is well settled that the High Court has power to allow compounding of a non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. where it feels that the same is required to prevent the abuse of process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. Such power is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone. In this regard, reference can be made to a Full Bench judgment of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052. It is equally settled position of law that the power of High Court in quashing criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation. Such power can certainly be exercised in cases relating to offences arising out of matrimony relating to dowry etc. or the family disputes where the wrong is basically private or personal in nature and the parties have resolved their entire dispute. The High Court is required to consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings or continuation of criminal proceedings would tantamount to abuse of process of law and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate to put an end to the criminal case and if the answer to such question is in affirmative, then the High Court is well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceedings. Reference in this context can be made to Hon'ble Apex Court judgments cited as Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543 and Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, 2014 (6) SCC 466.

13. In view of the proposition as settled in the aforementioned cases, this Court finds that continuation of proceedings would be an abuse process of the Court in the facts and circumstances of the present case which squarely falls within the ambit and parameters settled by judicial precedents and that allowing and accepting the prayer of the petitioners by quashing of the FIR would be securing the ends of justice, which is primarily the object of legislature enacted under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. Accordingly, the petition is allowed and the FIR No. 332 dated 31.01.2019 registered under Sections 323, 324, 452, 354-C, 427, 148 and 149 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Lopoke, Amritsar Rural, District Amritsar (Annexure P-1) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioners on the basis of compromise dated 10.04.2023 (Annexure P-3).

14. Needless to say that the parties shall remain bound by the terms and conditions of the compromise and statements as recorded before learned Judicial Magistrate.
