CWP-11327-2019

Date of decision: - 15.02.2024

Kapil Nandal

....Petitioner

Versus

Haryana Staff Selection Commission

.....Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS BAHL

Present:- Mr. Navnit Sharma, Advocate for Mr. R.S. Dhull, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Amandeep Joshi, DAG, Haryana.

VIKAS BAHL, J. (ORAL)

1. This is a petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India for the issuance of an appropriate writ, order or direction especially in the nature of certiorari for quashing the impugned final result dated 28.02.2019 (Annexure P-7).

2. On 21.02.2023, a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court was pleased to pass the following order: -

*“Present: None for the petitioner.
Mr. Naveen Singh Panwar, D.A.G., Haryana.*

Learned State counsel submits that in the online application filed by the petitioner, he has not claimed any marks towards socio-economic criteria and he has also not attached any application of his being orphan.

Since there is no representation on behalf of the respondent, therefore, in the interest of justice, adjourned to 19.09.2023.

JUDGE”

3. Learned State counsel has submitted that in addition to the above, even the last selected candidate has not been made a party and even in case the petitioner was to be given 5 additional marks, then also, at best, as per own case of the petitioner, he would be selected in the waiting list. It is further submitted that apparently, the petitioner is not interested in pursuing the present matter.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is not in touch with his office, thus, the present writ petition be disposed of as having been rendered infructuous, but liberty be granted to the petitioner to revive the present writ petition in case any cause survives.

5. In view of the above, the present writ petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous, however, liberty is granted to the petitioner to move an application in case any cause survives.
