IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

267

CRM-M-22904-2024

Date of Decision: 09.07.2024

Arun Kumar

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present: - Mr. Mohit Kakkar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Aditya Pal Singla, A.A.G., Haryana.

Mr. Manvender Chauhan, Advocate for respondent No.2/complainant.

NIDHI GUPTA, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner who is the husband of the complainant/respondent No.2 herein, has filed the present petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., for quashing of FIR No. 219 dated 28.08.2023 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 498-A, 323, 406 and 506 IPC (Sections 377 and 34 IPC deleted later on), registered at Police Station City Nathu Sarai Chopta, District Sirsa and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of Compromise Deed dated 10.04.2024 (Annexure P-2) arrived at between the parties.

Pursuant to the order dated 08.05.2024 passed by this Court, the parties appeared before the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Sirsa, to get their statements recorded. Learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Sirsa, has submitted his report along with statements of the parties vide letter dated 24.05.2024 duly forwarded by the learned District and Sessions Judge, Sirsa.

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioner and respondent Nos. 2 to 4 have appeared and suffered their statements with respect to the compromise, which have been found to be valid, genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present FIR emanates from the matrimonial dispute between the parties. It is further stated that a joint petition under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for divorce by way of mutual consent has also been filed before the concerned Family Court, wherein first motion statements of the parties have already been recorded on 10.04.2024 and second motion statements is to be recorded on 10.11.2024. He submits that as per report, the present petitioner and respondent Nos.2 to 4 are the only party to the compromise. It is further submitted that the petitioner has never been declared as proclaimed offender.

Learned State counsel has stated that he has 'no objection' in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise qua the petitioner.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Sirsa, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioner and respondent Nos. 2 to 4. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the proceedings where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced here-in-below:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed here-in-above, this petition is allowed and FIR No. 219 dated 28.08.2023 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 498-A, 323, 406 and 506 IPC (Sections 377 and 34 IPC deleted later on), registered at Police Station City Nathu Sarai Chopta, District Sirsa and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of Compromise Deed dated 10.04.2024 (Annexure P-2), are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioner.
