Sandeep Moudgil, J. (Oral)

This is a petition under Section 482 CrPC for quashing of FIR No.5 dated 2.1.2020, under Sections 420 IPC, 1860, and Section 24 of Immigration Act, 1983, registered at Police Station Division No.8, Ludhiana, District Ludhiana, on the basis of compromise (Annexure P-2).

During the pendency of the dispute, the parties have compromised the matter. Vide order dated 29.05.2024, parties were directed to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/Trial Court and for report with regard to the genuineness of the compromise. On the said date, the parties could not appear and as such, the time was further extended for another 10 days within which the parties were required to appear and get their statements recorded.

No report has been received pursuant to the order dated 11.07.2024, however, counsel for the respondent No.2 has furnished certified copies of the statements which are taken on record as Annexure 'A' collectively which includes statement of complainant Vijay Kumar; statement of accused Harsh Mahajan, statement of ASI Sunil Kumar and in terms thereof, it is clear that the parties have got their statements recorded to the effect of arriving at the compromise.

A Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, has held:-

“The only inevitable conclusion from the above discussion is that there is no statutory bar under the Cr.P.C. which can affect the inherent power of this Court under Section 482. Further, the same cannot be limited to matrimonial cases alone and the Court has the wide power to quash the proceedings even in noncompoundable offences notwithstanding the bar under Section 320 of the Cr.P.C., in order to prevent the abuse of law and to secure the ends of justice. The power under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. is to be exercised Ex-Debitia Justitia to prevent an abuse of process of Court. There can neither be an exhaustive list nor the defined para-meters to enable a High Court to invoke or exercise its inherent powers. It will always depend upon the facts and circumstances of each case. The power under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. has no limits. However, the High Court will exercise it sparingly and with utmost care and caution. The exercise of power has to be with circumspection and restraint. The Court is a vital and an extra-ordinary effective instrument to maintain and control social order. The Courts play role of paramount importance in achieving peace, harmony and everlasting congeniality in society. Resolution of a dispute by way of a compromise between two warring groups, therefore, should attract the immediate and prompt attention of a Court which should endeavour to give full effect to the same unless such compromise is abhorrent to lawful composition of the society or would promote savagery.”

The legal principles as laid down for quashing of the judgment were also approved by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of 'Gian Singh Versus State of Punjab and another, (2012) 10 SCC 303'. Furthermore, the broad principles for exercising the powers under Section 482 were summarized by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of 'Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur and others versus State of Gujarat and another' (2017) 9 SCC 641'.

It is evident that in view of the amicable resolution of the issues amongst the parties, no useful purpose would be served by continuation of the proceedings. The furtherance of the proceedings is likely to be wastage of judicial time as there appears to be no chances of conviction.

In view of above, prayer made in the present petition is allowed and the above mentioned FIR with all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua the petitioner in view of the compromise.

Disposed off.

Needless to say that the parties shall remain bound by the terms of compromise and their statements made before the Court below.
