DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

- (1) There is an inordinate delay of 233 days in the filing of the instant intra court appeal.
- (2) The only ground given for condonation of the inordinate delay of 233 days is “due to financial crises” in the family.
- (3) The afore explanation offered by the appellant is found to be absolutely vague and unsubstantiated as no details of any financial crises in the applicants-appellants’ family has been given.
- (4) In the light of the above, the application seeking condonation of the delay of 233 days is dismissed and consequently, the appeal is also dismissed on the same ground.
- (5) All pending miscellaneous application(s) also stand disposed of.
