RANBIR SINGH AND ORS

.Appellant

Versus

JAGDEEP SINGH

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Keshav Pratap Singh, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. L.S.Sidhu, Advocate, for the respondent.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J

1. This revision petition has been filed by the defendants to assail the correctness of the order passed by the First Appellate Court while allowing the miscellaneous appeal filed by the plaintiff against the order passed by the trial court. The application for grant of temporary injunction was dismissed by the trial court, whereas the First Appellate Court has restrained the defendants from interfering in the plaintiff's possession over the land comprised in Khasra No.266/2(0-17) till the disposal of the suit.

3. This Bench has heard the learned counsel representing the parties at length and with their able assistance perused the paper book.

4. During the course of arguments, the learned counsel representing the parties have come to a consensus. They state that the possession as well the status of the land comprised in Khasra No.266/2 shall be maintained as it is till the pendency of the suit. In other words, it is agreed between the learned counsel representing the parties that with respect to the land comprised in khasra no.266/2(0-17), status quo shall be maintained.

5. Keeping in view the aforesaid development, the revision petition is disposed of in accordance with the aforesaid agreed terms. The parties shall remain bound by the consensus arrived at by their counsels. This is only a temporary arrangement which shall be maintained by the parties during the pendency of the suit.
6. The dispute is with regard to the existence of a passage. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the trial court is requested to make sincere endeavours for expeditious disposal of the suit.
7. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
