

CRM-M-24430-2024

concession of anticipatory bail and the fact that injury is not on the vital part which is attributed to the petitioner with a dang. It is a case wherein the interrogation would not be required, if the petitioner in a bona fide manner is willing to join the investigation and associate himself and cooperates in furtherance of the same so that the final report can be submitted by the Investigating Agency in time.

5. Hence, in view of the admitted set of circumstances before this Court, the petitioner is directed to be released on anticipatory bail subject to his joining investigation and reporting to the Investigating Officer concerned within a period of one week from today, on furnishing of personal/surety bonds to the satisfaction of Arresting/Investigating Officer. The petitioner shall also abide by the terms and conditions as envisaged under Section 438(2) of Cr.P.C.

6. In case the petitioner fails to abide by the direction given by this Court particularly regarding joining of the investigation, the State would be at liberty to move an application for cancellation of the instant anticipatory bail.

7. The petition in the aforesaid terms stands disposed off.
